NCJW AND IMMIGRATION REFORM

All of us are descendants of immigrants ... men, women and children who were once strangers in a strange land. Generation after generation of wanderers have shaped our national experience. Our strength as a nation has come from the diversity of our people.

Since its founding in 1893, NCJW has been involved in service and advocacy on behalf of new immigrants. Today, NCJW works for comprehensive, humane and equitable immigration and naturalization laws that facilitate and expedite legal status for more individuals. NCJW supports reform that will provide opportunities for hard-working undocumented immigrants who have been paying taxes, to earn legal status and citizenship and expedited family reunification by reducing waiting periods that keep immigrant families apart.
